

photo by Graham Wilder

Ilan-Lael Foundation and Mingei International Museum

present

Conversations on Beauty

“Beauty and the Built Environment”

a discussion forum to examine the concept of beauty as we explore the ways that we shape and are shaped by the built environment

Tuesday, October 12, 2010 5:30 - 7:30pm
Mingei International Museum

Our Panelists

Teddy Cruz, architect and professor, Visual Arts Department UCSD

Richard Louv, journalist and author “Last Child in the Woods”

Andrew Spurlock, landscape architect

James Hubbell, Artist and Humanitarian

Julia Marciari-Alexander, Deputy Director for Curatorial Affairs, San Diego Museum of Art

Dirk Sutro, Moderator

In Association With

San Diego Museum of Art

La Jolla Athenaeum

SDAI Museum of the Living Artist

Museum of Photographic Arts

Tickets: $10 Museum members $15 general public

To purchase: http://www.mingei.org/events_travel/calendar/916 information www.ilanlaelfoundation.org